MEET THE TEAM

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS

CAPTAIN GREG STYLO

Captain Greg Stylo brings over a decade of maritime experience on vessels from 26m to 74m, fostering a cohesive crew environment focused on safety, service, and operational excellence. His hands-on approach ensures efficient yacht operations and a meticulously managed guest experience.

With extensive time as Chief Officer and Relief Captain on prestigious vessels like M/Y ALUNYA and M/Y PLVS VLTRA, Greg has navigated globally, covering 32,000 nautical miles across key yachting regions. Proficient in ISM and ISPS protocols, PMS, and deck management, his leadership style is approachable yet professional, aligning crew with the vessel's mission. Outside of yachting, Greg's adventurous spirit extends to entrepreneurial ventures, adding a unique blend of leadership and versatility.

CAPTAIN CORNELIS DE NECKER

Captain Cornelis brings a wealth of experience, professionalism, and a strong commitment to excellence. With a Master 3000 license and a range of certifications, including Advanced Fire, GMDSS, and Ship Safety Officer, he is exceptionally well-qualified. Cornelis has a calm and organized approach to managing a yacht, ensuring safety, reliability, and a smooth operation for both the crew and guests.

Cornelis has served as Captain on multiple high-profile yachts, including M/Y Solafide (52m) and has also held Chief Officer and Relief Captain positions on yachts like M/Y Party Girl (63m) and M/Y Mia Elise 2 (60m). His experience spans global cruising areas, including the Mediterranean, Caribbean, US East Coast, and beyond. In addition to his skills in navigation and vessel management, Cornelis is proficient in overseeing full refits, handling customs and clearances, and upholding ISM standards, ensuring compliance and a seamless charter experience.

Known for his friendly demeanor, punctuality, and loyalty, Cornelis is excellent with people and thrives in a team-oriented environment. His reliability and dedication make him a favorite among crew and guests alike.

Cornelis is a fitness enthusiast and enjoys rugby, motorsports, and E-sports. His love for staying active complements his energetic and focused leadership style.

MATE

Chief Officer Josip Jelavic is a driven and dedicated maritime professional with a strong passion for yachting and a commitment to excellence in all aspects of vessel management. With a solid background on yachts ranging from 41m to 50m, Josip brings a wealth of knowledge in safety management, navigation, and deck operations. He holds qualifications including Yachtmaster 500GT and an Unlimited Officer of the Watch, making him a capable leader both on the bridge and on deck.

Josip's recent experience as Chief Officer on M/Y KIJO and M/Y Stefania saw him managing everything from safety systems to crew leadership and deck maintenance. His versatility in roles such as navigation, tender driving, and water sports ensures smooth operations and guest satisfaction. With a natural ability to lead, Josip takes pride in maintaining high standards and fostering teamwork among his crew.

Fluent in both Croatian and English, Josip is a reliable, adaptable team player, always eager to tackle new challenges. His athletic background and positive attitude make him a strong asset to any yacht team, ensuring not only operational efficiency but also a harmonious working environment for all crew members.

ENGINEER

Michael Keeling hails from the UK and began his career working for a ferry company before transitioning into the yachting industry. Known for his technical expertise, precision, and methodical approach, Michael is a highly skilled and formal engineer who takes his responsibilities seriously. His professionalism and commitment to excellence ensure the smooth operation of all technical aspects onboard.

With a passion for travel and meeting new people, yachting has allowed Michael to merge his love of adventure with his technical skills. He particularly enjoys the unique experiences life at sea offers, such as witnessing dolphins alongside the yacht.

Michael's experience includes working on yachts such as ALLUNIA, PATIENCE, and NOVELO, and he now brings his dedication and attention to detail to WATERCOLOURS.

CHEF

Chef Amy Wiffen is a versatile and passionate culinary expert with a wealth of experience in both private and charter yacht settings. Known for her ability to cater to diverse palates, dietary preferences, and nutritional needs, Amy consistently delivers unforgettable dining experiences for guests and crew alike. Her culinary philosophy emphasizes adaptability and a refusal to say "no" when it comes to fulfilling guest requests, making her a favorite among yacht owners and charter clients.

With certifications from renowned institutions like the Ashburton Chef's Academy and the Bangkok Thai Cooking Academy, Amy excels in a variety of cuisines, including vegan and Asian gastronomy. She has held key positions on yachts such as M/Y Fabulous Character and M/Y Reflections, where she managed high-pressure charter schedules and curated multi-course menus for both intimate and large gatherings.

Amy's attention to detail extends beyond her culinary creations, as she takes pride in maintaining a well-organized galley and ensuring a smooth dining experience under any circumstances. Her easy-going nature, sense of humor, and strong work ethic have earned her repeat freelance contracts and praise from captains and guests.

CHIEF STEWARDESS

Karly Hinkebein has extensive experience in both private and charter yachts, including her recent role as Chief Stewardess aboard M/Y Mirabella (48m Trinity). She expertly managed a busy dual-season program, orchestrating elaborate events, overseeing interior operations, and liaising with the galley to ensure impeccable meal service. Her accomplishments include planning large-scale onboard events, managing interior projects under tight deadlines, and training interior teams.

Karly's creative expertise was recognized at prestigious industry events, winning 1st Place in Tablescaping at the Antigua Charter Yacht Show (December 2022) and the Newport Charter Yacht Show (June 2023).

Karly's enthusiasm, creativity, and team-oriented mindset make her a valued member of any crew. She thrives in high-energy environments and takes pride in mentoring her team while maintaining a professional and welcoming atmosphere for guests.

SECOND STEWARDESS

Nicole Kruger, the 2nd Stewardess is a South African national fluent in English and Afrikaans. Nicole has gained extensive experience on both charter and private yachts, including M/Y YOLO (40m), M/Y Bella (55m), and M/Y Lucky Lady (63m). Her expertise spans cocktail making, silver service, and table decorating, along with responsibilities in housekeeping, laundry, and guest service. Nicole has demonstrated exceptional multitasking and time management skills, including acting as a sole stewardess during a yard period, where she handled provisioning, inventories, and contractor coordination with ease.

Nicole is highly regarded for her creativity in service, attention to detail, and adaptability to new challenges. Her artistic flair and passion for yoga, which includes pursuing a 200-hour teacher training, enhance her ability to provide a world-class experience for guests.

STEWARDESS / DECKHAND

Genevieve Masters was born in Hong Kong, where her family was working at the time, and she spent her early years living across Asia. She was raised in Kent, UK, where she developed a strong background in sports, playing hockey at a professional level during her time at university. Following her studies, Genevieve worked as a corporate sports event manager, including experience in organizing F1 events.

Her first exposure to yachting came when her company chartered a yacht for a 100-person event. She then transitioned into the yachting world, bringing a wealth of experience from her previous roles, including a year in public relations for an interior designer and a background in marketing.

Genevieve primarily focuses on interior and housekeeping duties, ensuring a comfortable environment onboard WATERCOLOURS.

Genevieve enjoys outdoor activities such as skiing, hockey, running, and various winter sports, reflecting her active lifestyle.

DECKHAND

Born and raised in South Africa, Gareth Lloyd studied business management with a focus on marketing. While continuing his studies, he transitioned directly into the yachting industry with the goal of becoming a chase boat captain. His long-term dedication to the industry is evident, and he brings a positive and energetic attitude to the team.

Gareth thrives in the outdoors, which makes the role of deckhand a natural fit for him. His warm and approachable demeanor instantly puts people at ease, creating a sense of familiarity from the moment you meet him.

He started his yachting journey on a sailing catamaran before moving to a 92m Lürssen and then joined LUCKY WAVE (former name for WATERCOLOURS), continuing to build on his growing expertise.

Gareth's love for the sea began during family trips to Mozambique, where he spent his childhood swimming, diving, and engaging in thrilling adventures like whale watching and swimming with whale sharks.

DECKHAND & FISHING EXPERT

Frankie Smith, the Deckhand and Fishing Expert brings a unique blend of skills and experience from his extensive yachting and maritime career. Frankie holds dual nationality as British and Antiguan/Bajan. Growing up in Antigua, he developed a deep connection with the ocean, becoming an avid sailor and passionate fisherman. With certifications including STCW, Powerboat Level 2, Boat Master, and PADI Open Water, he is well-equipped for diverse deckhand responsibilities. His career highlights include roles on yachts like M/Y Special One (52m), M/Y Pure Bliss (45m), and S/Y Tamer 2 (36m), where he honed his skills in tender operations, maintenance, and water sports instruction.

Frankie is known for his expertise in deep-sea fishing, a passion he cultivated through roles as a commercial fisherman and fishing charter leader. He has also served as a wakeboarding instructor and water sports guide, enhancing guest experiences with activities like tubing, paddleboarding, and snorkelling. His ability to teach and interact with guests, combined with his enthusiasm for the water, ensures unforgettable experiences. Beyond yachting, Frankie has volunteered with ABSAR (Antigua Barbuda Search & Rescue), further showcasing his commitment to safety and community service.

The Captain and his crew look forward to welcoming you onboard WATERCOLOURS this coming summer.
